

de
zeen

Sixty-two galleries from 16 countries to exhibit at the 15th edition of PAD London

Dezeen staff | 22 minutes ago

Promotion: gravity-defying wooden furniture and a monumental light sculpture are among the highlights of this year's PAD London art and design fair, which opens this month in London.

Now in its 15th year, the London version of the fair will take place at its usual spot in London's Berkeley Square, Mayfair from 10 to 15 October 2023.

62 galleries from 16 countries will exhibit work at this year's edition, which follows the 25th edition of PAD Paris.

Onyx Coffee table by Pietro Franceschini is on display at Galerie Philia. Courtesy of Galerie Philia. Image above: Heather (2023) by Sigme Emdal at Galerie Maria Wettergren. Courtesy of Galerie Maria Wettergren

This year's line-up includes 13 galleries showcasing at the fair for the first time. They include the international sculptural design gallery Galerie Philia, which will stage a specially curated show called Gravity and Grace.

This exhibition brings together brand-new onyx works by eight international designers and artists including Studioepepe, Pietro Franceschini and Andres Monnier.

Also included are gravity-defying wooden furniture by Mircea Anghel and bronze lighting pieces by Vladimir Slavov. Courtesy of Objects With Narratives

Also making its PAD London debut is Swiss Belgian gallery Objects with Narratives, which will present bold, gravity-defying wooden furniture by Mircea Anghel and sculptural bronze lighting pieces by Vladimir Slavov.

Joining from Paris, art and design Secret Gallery will present Lala, a stylish cabinet with cloisonné enamel tile decoration by Reda Amalou, and stoneware sculptures by Yann Masseyeff.

Plain Cuts Stone and Steel #6 SS 2227 (2023) by Wonmin Park. Courtesy of Carpenters Workshop Gallery

Other contemporary design highlights at this year's show include Tree, a monumental light sculpture by Nacho Carbonell and a stone and dyed steel desk by Wonmin Park, which will both be premiered at Carpenters Workshop Gallery.

Swiss gallery Ormond Editions will showcase minimalist furniture and lighting pieces by French creators Garnier & Linker, Belgian architect Glenn Sestig, Seoul and New York-based ceramic artist Yoona Hur and Parisian designer Pieter Maes.

Side table from the new Stacked collection by Sabine Marcelis. Courtesy of SIDE Gallery

Barcelona's SIDE Gallery returns to the fair this year after making its debut in 2019. This year, the gallery will present the new resin furniture collection called Stacked by Sabine Marcelis.

It will also present the latest works by Charlotte Kingsnorth and Gyuhun Lee, conceived as a reference to the 1970s Global Tools movement spanning Italian Radical Architecture, Arte Povera and Conceptual Art.

Indian designer Vikram Goyal has partnered with Milan-based Nina Yashar's Nilufar Galleries to showcase a new body of intricately detailed metal works made at his New Dehli atelier.

Golden Arc Bench (2023) by Vikram Goyal. Courtesy of Vikram Goyal x Nilufar

Among this year's exhibitors are artists and designers who are pioneers in their field, according to PAD London. World-renowned textile artists and designers include Finnish-born surface designer Kustaa Saksi as part of Gallery FUMI and Belgian tapestry weavers KRJST Studio, who are part of the Galerie Scène Ouverte exhibit.

Also included is Danish textile artist Signe Emdal, exhibiting with Galerie Maria Wettergren and British artist Teresa Hastings's work via the Sarah Myerscough Gallery.

Summer (4 seasons) by Patricia Camet. Courtesy of Florian Daguet-Bresson

Fango Studio via SIDE Gallery and ARKO as part of Sarah Myerscough Gallery will present new woven works.

A number of colourful and playful ceramic designs will also be on display, including pieces by Superpoly, Timothée Humbert, Patricia Camet via Florian Daguet-Bresson, Lola Montes Schnabel via Nilufar, Ashraf Hanna via Atelier Adrian Sassoon, Willem van Hooff via SIDE Gallery and Glithero as part of Gallery FUMI.

French creators Garnier & Linker showcase lighting and furniture designs at Ormond Editions

Norwegian designer Nebil Zaman will showcase his latest plaster works at SIDE gallery, Finnish glass artist Camilla Moberg will introduce a handblown glass and natural stone artwork at Parisian gallery Galerie Maria Wettergren while paper works by Taiwanese artist Pao Hui Kao will be found at Spazio Nobile.

Founded in 2007 by fourth-generation Parisian antique dealer Patrick Perrin, PAD London is the only fair in the UK exclusively dedicated to 20th-century and contemporary design.

Finnish glass artist Camilla Moberg produces handblown glass pieces at Galerie Maria Wettergren

“Over the course of fifteen years, our dedicated efforts have transformed PAD London - the only design fair in the UK - into the popular and vibrant platform it is today: a place of boundless inspiration, dedicated to creativity, quality, learning and discovery for all,” commented Perrin.

To learn more about PAD London, visit its website.

PAD London takes place from 10 to 15 October 2023 in London. See Dezeen Events Guide for an up-to-date list of architecture and design events taking place around the world.

Partnership content

This article was written by Dezeen for PAD London as part of a partnership. Find out more about Dezeen partnership content here.