ART FOCUS: What to DO, SEE and BUY

New to PAD

PAD London is returning for its 15th edition, with a roster of well known and emerging talent. One of the 62 international names is first-time exhibitor JCRD Design. Founded in 2019 by Brazilian-born Luiz Kessler (left), its main focus is sourcing and restoring Brazilian mid-century and contemporary furniture. For PAD, it will present pieces by the likes of Joaquim Tenreiro (whose chairs are pictured, £70,000 a pair), Jorge Zalszupin, Sergio Rodrigues, Lina Bo Bardi and José Zanine Caldas. PAD London is at Berkeley Square, W1, October 10-15; tickets £25. padesignart.com

INTRODUCING Bloomfield Ink

Inspired by their shared love of colour, pattern and design, friends Prue MacLeod and Emerald Dangerfield (above) founded this wallpaper studio in 2021. The exquisite papers are based on works by Emerald, who is a talented artist and a textile designer, while Prue – with a background in fashion – consults on the colours. Each one is then block-printed by a family firm in Lincoln. The latest design, ‘Sea of Dreams’, is available in 10 colourways, including poseidon seen here, and costs £400 for a 10-metre roll. ## Creative combinations

Interior design duo Salvesen Graham (Nicole Salvesen, right, and Mary Graham) has collaborated with Sanderson on a collection featuring reissued prints from the fabric house’s archives, including ‘Sessile Leaf’, seen on the cushion with ‘Norton Fringe’ in thyme (£39*). This is one of 36 new trims in complementary colours in 90 per cent recycled yarns: also shown are ‘Nosterfield Tassel’ in parchment (£79) and ‘Nunwick Triple Loop’ in rose (£39).
