

HOUSE & GARDEN®

October 2026

SWISH!

Bejewelled gardens
and the return of the home bar

SPLASH!

Holiday like the yachterati (or escape
to the Hebrides)

The Decoration issue

SUMPTUOUS FABRICS AND FURNISHINGS TO FEATHER YOUR NEST

Leap ahead

Daniel Daviau's patinated-bronze Frog sculpture, 2017, is presented by Paris gallery Dumonteil

Rock stars

One-of-a-kind tourmaline and magnesite earrings by innovative Munich jeweller Hemmerle

PAD LONDON

Mayfair's chic fair for collectable design – a treasure trove of contemporary and vintage finds, alongside high jewellery conceived as 'wearable art' – attracts a fashionable crowd. This year, Carpenters Workshop Gallery showcases the work of Italian contemporary designer Giacomo Ravagli, while among the new exhibitors, Paris-based Galerie Boketto hosts Through and Through, an exhibition exploring 'density through transparency' via the work of rising talents. Here, Jackie Daly selects ten more highlights.

October 13-18, Berkeley Square, W1J; padesignart.com

High flyer

'Pulcino' glass bird model no S189 by Alessandro Pianon for Vetreria Vistosi Murano, 1962, presented by Brussels gallery Unforget

By a thread

Rademakers Gallery is showing Night Garden by Alfild Kølper, a wool artwork combining traditional tufting techniques with 3D embroidery

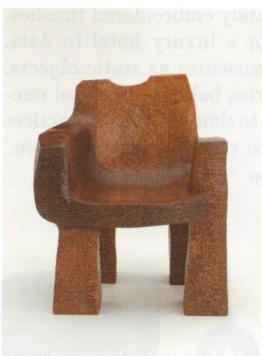

New facets

Mega Magma, 2025, a crystalline-glazed sculpture by Kate Malone, is among the eye-catching designs shown by Adrian Sassoon

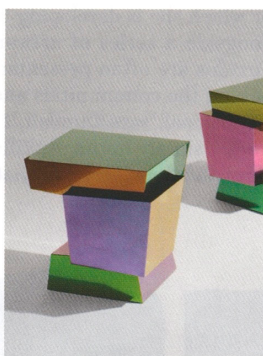

Make the gradient

The hand-dyed and woven textile artwork Yellow Violet Dynamics, 2025, by Ptolemy Mann, is on show at Tristan Hoare's stand

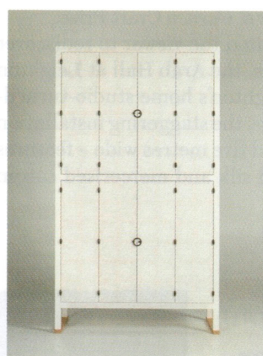

Against the grain

Friedman Benda is showcasing Faye Toogood's playful 'Cairn' chair, 2021, which is carved from solid oak

Shine on

French designer Hervé van der Straeten returns with his 'Bout de Canape Robot' 501 tables in chameleon lacquer

Cupboard love

The 'Book' cabinet by Kwon Won Deok, 2025, is being shown by South Korea's Gallery LVS

Glass act

The 'Steli' vase by Michela Cattai, 2026, which is part of the presentation at Beirut gallery PIK'D

FRANCIS AMAND; SYLVAIN DELEU; ANGELO MILLI; MICHELA CATTAI