

MUST SEE

BEYOND LIMITS

From Barbara Hepworth to Anthony Caro, Lynn Chadwick to Sarah Lucas, our homegrown artists have done us proud on the international sculpture scene. Sotheby's celebrates their success with the tenth Beyond Limits outdoor sculpture exhibition at Chatsworth, specially curated by Tim Marlow, exploring the fascinating dialogue between the landscape and the works on display. 14 September to 25 October; sothebys.com

The Diary

Dinner and dancing with Raymond Blanc

DESIGN JUNKIES

DECOREX, TW8

As the London Design Festival commences, design mavens flock to Syon Park to preview 400 hand-selected exhibitors. This year, thoughts turn to the future of luxury design. Jo Sampson and Regan Iglesias of Waterford and Wedgwood discuss how best to preserve heritage while expanding globally, Lucy Johnston questions the impact of the digital revolution on craftsmanship and Justin Van Breda and Martin Hulbert celebrate collaborations. 20-23 Sept; decorex.com

CHELSEA DESIGN QUARTER, SW6

With so much going on during the London Design Festival, where to begin? We suggest honing in on one of the design districts, like the Chelsea Design Quarter, which is holding a packed programme of events. Interior designer Alidad will design one of Guinevere's windows, John Cullen Lighting is hosting an exhibition with Ultimate Library, the creators of beautiful book collections, and George Smith is hosting an upholstery demo. 19-27 Sept; chelseadesignquarter.co.uk

PAD LONDON, W1

Asian and Islamic art are having a moment and come under the spotlight at Pad London art fair, with contemporary Chinese ink paintings from Michael Goedhuis and tenth-century painted terracotta from Iran at Alexis Renard. For 19th and 20th-century art, there's Galerie Xavier Eeckhout, Tomasso Brothers Fine Art will exhibit neo-classical and renaissance bronzes and, for the first time, Rose Uniacke joins the fair. 14-18 Oct; pad-fairs.com