Fairs the World Over Make Announcements

PAD Paris is, like so many other such organizations, shifting its focus to digital efforts. This week, the esteemed fair launched PADesignartonline. Notably, the platform is intended to be a permanent pillar of PAD's broader effort, maintaining its presence long after the coronavirus pandemic. Elsewhere, NYCxDESIGN has officially become a not-for-profit organization, according to an announcement made this week.

Additionally, the long-delayed Design Shanghai 2020 is now finally on the precipice of opening. The fair, which was scheduled for March and then June of this year, will take over the Shanghai World Expo Exhibition and Convention Center from November 26–29. Also of note, Art Basel Hong Kong has shifted from March to May of next year. And last but certainly not least, Coverings 2021 will now take place July 7–9, 2021.
